

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH AWARENESS PROGRAMME

This awareness program will give an overview of safety and health management at workplace and participants will understand the importance of safety management at work, their responsibilities and the necessary actions to enhance safety and health at their respective workplaces.

Course Objectives

At the end of the programme, participants should be able to:

1. Understand the basic legal requirements and compliance under OSHA 1994
2. Understand the responsibilities of employer, employee and safety committee under OSHA 1994
3. Understand the importance of the Safety Committee, training and safety audit at workplace
4. Recognize work place safety hazards and take preventive measures

METHODOLOGY

This program is conducted in a highly interactive manner where it enables the participants to have experiential learning throughout the training session. All the modules include one or more of the following methodology:

- Group work and exercises
- Case study related to the organization
- Lecture/Presentations

TARGET AUDIENCE

All levels in an organisation: SAFETY IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY.

Course Outline

Introduction

- What is Occupational Health & Safety?
- Why is Occupational Health & Safety Important/
- Cost of Occupational Injury and Diseases

Introduction to OSHA 1994

Safety Committee

Hazards in the Workplace

Range of Hazards

Accident Investigation

The Importance of Training

Safety & Health Audit

Facilitator

Sajni Dharamdass

Duration : 2 days